Delores Ann Garcia Bride Of Ricardo Jess Fernandez

One of the loveliest weddings of the season took place on July 6, at 9 a.m. in the Nativity church, when Delores Ann Garcia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Garcia, 1632 Hickory ave., became the bride of Ricardo Jess Fernandez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Fernandez, 2418 W. 251st st.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. Rev. Thomas Glynn read the marriage vows, Mrs. Minnie McConlough sang "Ava Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her wedding the bride chose a colonial style gown of Chantilly lace over satin, the fitted bodice had long pointed sleeves and a scalloped neckline. Layer upon layer of Chantilly lace over pleated tulle created a bouffant skirt with a long train. A crown of pearls and rhinestones held the illusion type veil in place, and she carried three white orchids woven into a background of stephanotis and pearls.

Evelyn Irene Solas, maid of honor, wore a lace and tulle shrimp colored frock with a bouffant skirt and carried white carnations with shrimp colored streamers. Her veil was shrimp tulle.

The bridesmaids wore frocks of teal blue with white picture hats and carried white carnations with teal blue streamers. Bridesmaids were: Anita Naranjo, Darlene Gonzalez, Diane Gonzalez, Nancy Garcia, Eleanor Fernandez, Anita Fernandez, Rose Duarte, Maria Mendoza and Rosalie Salas. The pages were Cinda Garcia and Pete Saucido.

The best man was Ralph Ruiz Aquinaga. Ushers were: Henry Fernandez, Albert Aguilar, Gilbert Gaska, Maurilio Beltran, Gene Maes, Daniel Garcia, Albert Beltran, Tomas Coleman, and Arthur Ortiz.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue coat dress and white lace duster with a navy blue picture hat and white accessories. Mrs. Fernandez wore a powder blue dress with a black moire duster and black accessories. Both had corsages of gardenias and baby rosebuds.

After the wedding, 450 guests and relatives attended a reception at the home of the groom's parents. Dancing was from 8-12 at the Yugoslav American club in San Pedro.

The young couple, who graduated from local schools, will reside in Lomita after a honeymoon trip to San Francisco.
